2. A fire broke out in a restaurant owned by Mr. X, which was insured under a fire insurance policy. To prevent the fire from spreading to nearby buildings, the Fire Brigade decided to demolish a neighboring bookstore owned by Mr. Y. But Mr. Y did not have a fire insurance policy for his bookstore. Can Mr. Y make a claim for the destruction of his property based on Mr. X's fire insurance policy?
3. Mr. Ravi insured his stock of cotton in his warehouse against fire for an amount of Rs 50 lakhs. In a fire accident, his cotton stock worth Rs 35 lakhs was lost. Discuss the principle on which the extent of liability of the insurance company is determined. Also examine if it makes any difference in the liability of the insurer if the cotton was damaged by the heat of machinery inside the warehouse?
4. A cargo ship carrying a valuable shipment of electronics was insured under a marine insurance policy. The ship encountered a severe storm during its voyage and the cargo was damaged. However, it was later discovered that the ship's captain had ignored weather warnings prior to setting sail. Discuss the rights of the insured and the liabilities of the insurer under the policy.
5. Mr. X, an insurance policyholder, assigned his policy to Mr. Y by endorsing it upon the policy. However, this assignment from Mr. X to Mr. Y was not communicated to the insurance company. Discuss the validity of such an assignment.
